Subject: Save the date : call for applications for our Erasmus+ Week at UCL, Lille - 15-19 April 2024

To: <relint@uniss.it>

Dear Erasmus+ Colleagues,

Greetings from the Université Catholique de Lille!

The call for applications for our Erasmus+ Week in April 2024 is now officially open.

As our University has chosen Innovation in teaching-learnings and Sustainable Development as two major strategic research and action fields across the whole campus, our training week will be mainly focused on these two topics. Of course, there will also be some time devoted to networking and meetings with your colleagues in Lille.

Please find below some practical information that will be completed.

When?

15 to 19 April 2024

Who?

Colleagues from partner universities of the Université Catholique de Lille, involved in sustainable development and/or innovation projects in teaching and learning, and internationalization.

Please note we might have to limit participant to one representative per university.

Where?

Université Catholique de Lille, Lille, France

What for?

• General program:

Innovation in teaching & learning (visit of labs and facilities, presentation of innovative teaching techniques and specific trainings to foster innovation amongst students and professionals), innovation for internationalization.

Sustainable Development (presentation of UCL's project for a zero-carbon campus; visit of eco-friendly buildings; integration of SDG's in students' programs).

(more information to come in February)

- Bilateral meetings with French colleagues
- Cultural and linguistic immersion
- Networking with an international group

How to apply?

All application procedures must be completed and submitted by 15 February.

- Candidates are invited to send to Ms. Madalena Chaveiro-Magalhaes at m.chaveiro-magalhaes@univ-catholille.fr

- CV,

- Cover letter (in link with sustainable development and/or innovation).

- Complete the Application Form : <https://forms.office.com/e/Dm1FzhgdU9>

A selection committee will take place in March at UCL and will confirm selected applicants.

Cost:

Please note that we are charging a 100€ participation per person for the logistical and cultural activities (2 networking lunches and 1 official group dinner).

These costs can be deducted directly from your Erasmus grant distributed by your home university. Please also make sure to follow the internal procedures of your home university if you want to apply for Erasmus funding.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in Lille,

Kind regards,
