

Prof. Lucia Pozzi

lpozzi@uniss.it

Full Professor of Demography

Department of Economics and Business - University of Sassari

SHORT BIO

---

Full professor of Demography at the University of Sassari, where she teaches “Statistics” and “Demography”, since 2005. President of the Italian Society of Historical Demography (S.I.De.S.) between 2006 and 2015, Lucia Pozzi has been President of the European Society of Historical Demography (ESHD) (2020-2022). Throughout her career, she has always maintained close international collaborations with other European universities, including Queen’s University of Belfast, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona and more recently frequent visiting research periods at Queen’s University of Belfast, the Universities of Alicante and Valencia. Her research interests have always focused on historical demographic subjects.

CURRENT RESEARCH INTERESTS

---

Determinants of the health transition process in several European countries, with particular attention to maternal and infant/ child health.

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS & WPs

---

Pozzi, L., Scalone, F., Raftakis, M., Kennedy, L., 2024. Religious affiliation and child mortality in Ireland: A country-wide analysis based on the 1911 Census. Demographic Research 50, 393–410.

Scalone, F., Pozzi, L., Kennedy, L., 2023. Religion and Child Death in Ireland’s Industrial Capital: Belfast 1911. Social Science History 47, 425–451.