To:

Greetings from the Université Catholique de Lille!

We are pleased to invite you to our next Erasmus+ Week, which will take place during the week of 24-28 October 2022.

Our University will dedicate this Erasmus+ Week to the engagement of universities in Sustainable Development. We will share our experiences in this field and invite you to participate in several workshops aimed at awareness raising and exchange of good practices.

Thursday and Friday will be devoted to a major event organized by the Université Catholique de Lille: the “ECOPOSS biennale,” which aims to bring together all of society to imagine desirable futures, to raise ethical awareness, and to discuss a common good to be built together ...another way to look at sustainability!

All participants will be invited to the opening celebration and keynote speech. You will have the possibility of attending various events and workshops from Thursday to Sunday according to your particular interests.

Of course, there will also be some time devoted to networking and meetings with colleagues from the different schools and faculties of our university.

Please find below some practical information that will be finalized in the coming weeks.

When?

24 to 28 October 2022

Who?

Colleagues from partner universities of the Université Catholique de Lille involved with social and environmental issues and responsibilities at their home universities.

Where?

Université Catholique de Lille, Lille, France
