Dear Partners,

We are happy to announce that our 6th International Week at Krakow University of Economics will take place on April 8th – 12th, 2023.

We cordially invite you to save the date in your calendars already!

The main topic of our programme is Management of Cities with Cultural Heritage. International Programs Office kindly invites teachers and administrative staff to participate in the program. We invite universities' employers who are interested in our main topic to prepare the poster session or the course related to the program.

Participants are expected to cover their own travel and living expenses. Registration fee is 170 Euro and covers cost of welcome cultural event and lunches, city tour and entrance tickets.

Confirmation of selection results will be sent to all participants by e-mail after the 5th of March 2023. Information about accommodation and the final program will be sent only to selected participants. Please do not make travel arrangements before your participation is confirmed.

Application form <https://forms.office.com/e/eRWx4Wsc78>

You are warmly welcome to join our facebook group of the event
